PRIME MINISTER

MEETING WITH CHANCELLOR AND GOVERNOR OF THE BANK

FRIDAY 25 MARCH

You are seeing the Chancellor and the Governor, plus officials, at 1100 on 25 March. This will be a lengthy meeting and Paul felt that it would be nice to "overflow" into lunch.

However, you are due to leave for Finchley at 1415 that day. I have had a word with Sue Goodchild, and if you would like to do as Paul suggests, there are three possibilities:

- (a) a quick lunch in the Small Dining Room
(2 courses only)
- (b) a cold buffet, or
- (c) simply drinks and finger food.

Would you like to give those attending the meeting lunch?

Which option would you prefer?
