

PRIME MINISTER

BILATERAL WITH THE CHANCELLOR:

31 MARCH

I suggest the main item for discussion should be the likely recommendations of the Pay Review Bodies - see separate note.

The other item might be a stocktaking of market developments and the outcome of the TCSC hearings.)

PHeb
 with the pound having now risen to over  $\pounds 1.88$  and nearly DM 3.125 the Chancellor has authorised the Bank to do some limited intervention - say ~~£~~  $\pounds 100$  m. - if the strengthening continues. This could be overnight in N.Y. or (Eddie's preference) first thing in the morning in London. I have said I do not think you would object to some testing of the market on about this scale, but that you would get concerned at anything significantly greater.

PG

30 March, 1988.

REC 6.