

PRIME MINISTER

YOUR EDINBURGH SPEECH

I think you should know that your General Assembly speech is a best-seller - or would be if we were charging for it.

There is exceptional demand for copies - Press Office have dispatched well over 100 copies. Ordinary members of the public are asking for them. There is a brisk demand from clergymen - you have clearly launched a thousand sermons - and the South African Embassy has been sent one.

BERNARD INGHAM

27 May 1988